

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Advice vs. Advise

Advice and advise sound a lot alike, but their meanings are different.

Advice is a noun meaning guidance or recommendations.

Example 1: My mother always gives me good advice.

Advise is a verb meaning to give guidance, recommendations or information.

Example 1: I advise you to get home on time.

Advice

Advise

Choose advice or advise to complete each sentence.

1. The older students will _____ the younger ones on the rules.
2. His _____ to me was to tell my teacher my problem.
3. Will you _____ the parents of the change in the test date?
4. The speaker offered the audience her words of _____.
5. Ben will _____ his sister on the shortest way to school.
6. Never give _____ unless you are asked.
7. Please _____ me of your arrival time.
8. What is your _____ on what to wear?
9. Laura asked the _____ of her friends.
10. The principal will _____ the teachers on emergency procedures.

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Advice vs. Advise

Advice and advise sound a lot alike, but their meanings are different.

Advice is a noun meaning guidance or recommendations.

Example 1: My mother always gives me good advice.

Advise is a verb meaning to give guidance, recommendations or information.

Example 1: I advise you to get home on time.

Advice

Advise

Choose advice or advise to complete each sentence.

1. The older students will _____ the younger ones on the rules.
2. His _____ to me was to tell my teacher my problem.
3. Will you _____ the parents of the change in the test date?
4. The speaker offered the audience her words of _____.
5. Ben will _____ his sister on the shortest way to school.
6. Never give _____ unless you are asked.
7. Please _____ me of your arrival time.
8. What is your _____ on what to wear?
9. Laura asked the _____ of her friends.
10. The principal will _____ the teachers on emergency procedures.