

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Altar vs. Alter

Altar and alter sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Altar is a noun meaning a raised place or table used in religious services.

Example 1: The bride walked up the aisle to the altar.

Alter is a verb meaning to change.

Example 1: He won't alter his opinion

Altar

Alter

Choose altar or alter to complete each sentence.

1. The minister said a prayer at the _____.
2. We could _____ our plans and stay longer.
3. Beautiful stained glass windows surrounded the _____.
4. Louisa asked the seamstress to _____ her dress.
5. He placed the goblet on the _____.
6. The explorers decided to _____ their course and climb the mountain.
7. The ladies of the church decorated the _____ with flowers.
8. The groom stood at the _____ waiting for the wedding to begin.
9. The criminal may _____ his appearance by growing a beard.
10. You can _____ the color of your room with paint.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Altar vs. Alter

Altar and alter sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Altar is a noun meaning a raised place or table used in religious services.

Example 1: The bride walked up the aisle to the altar.

Alter is a verb meaning to change.

Example 1: He won't alter his opinion

Altar

Alter

Choose altar or alter to complete each sentence.

1. The minister said a prayer at the _____ altar _____.
2. We could _____ alter _____ our plans and stay longer.
3. Beautiful stained glass windows surrounded the _____ altar _____.
4. Louisa asked the seamstress to _____ alter _____ her dress.
5. He placed the goblet on the _____ altar _____.
6. The explorers decided to _____ alter _____ their course and climb the mountain.
7. The ladies of the church decorated the _____ altar _____ with flowers.
8. The groom stood at the _____ altar _____ waiting for the wedding to begin.
9. The criminal may _____ alter _____ his appearance by growing a beard.
10. You can _____ alter _____ the color of your room with paint.