

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Council vs. Counsel

Council and counsel sound a little alike, but their meanings seem similar but they are different.

Council is a noun meaning a group of people that make decisions.

Example 1: The mayor and the city council met on Tuesday.

Counsel is used as a noun and a verb. As a noun it means advice or a lawyer.

As a verb, it means to give advice or an opinion.

Example 1: The wise king received good counsel from his nobles.

Example 2: He asked his legal counsel for help.

Example 3: The teacher would counsel her students on good manners.

Choose council or counsel to complete each sentence.

1. Ann decided to run for student _____.
2. Mrs. McNeill will _____ her on her problems.
3. Robert addressed the city _____ about the park.
4. You should _____ the children about obeying the rules.
5. The members of the _____ walked out of the meeting.
6. The innocent man's _____ asked for more time before the trial started.
7. He listened to the _____ of his elders.
8. We think you should join the sports _____.
9. The _____ could not agree on the proposal.
10. The judge asked _____ to approach the bench.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Council vs. Counsel

Council and counsel sound a little alike, but their meanings seem similar but they are different.

Council is a noun meaning a group of people that make decisions.

Example 1: The mayor and the city council met on Tuesday.

Counsel is used as a noun and a verb. As a noun it means advice or a lawyer.

As a verb, it means to give advice or an opinion.

Example 1: The wise king received good counsel from his nobles.

Example 2: He asked his legal counsel for help.

Example 3: The teacher would counsel her students on good manners.

Choose council or counsel to complete each sentence.

1. Ann decided to run for student _____ council _____.
2. Mrs. McNeill will _____ counsel _____ her on her problems.
3. Robert addressed the city _____ council _____ about the park.
4. You should _____ counsel _____ the children about obeying the rules.
5. The members of the _____ council _____ walked out of the meeting.
6. The innocent man's _____ counsel _____ asked for more time before the trial started.
7. He listened to the _____ counsel _____ of his elders.
8. We think you should join the sports _____ council _____.
9. The _____ council _____ could not agree on the proposal.
10. The judge asked _____ counsel _____ to approach the bench.