

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Stationary vs. Stationery

Stationary and stationery sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Stationary is an adjective meaning standing still or not moving.

Example 1: The plane was so high in the sky that it seemed stationary.

Stationery is a noun meaning writing papers and supplies

Example 1: I wrote the letter on blue stationery.

Stationary
Stationery

Choose stationary or stationery to complete each sentence.

1. The bus stayed _____ while it waited for passengers.
2. The office _____ had a gold seal on it.
3. There are no envelopes in this package of _____.
4. She gets her exercise on a _____ bicycle.
5. They stood _____ while the snake went by.
6. My aunt bought flowered _____ at the store.
7. The soldiers stayed _____ as the general passed by.
8. He took out a piece of _____ from the desk.
9. The rate of growth remained _____ for three years.
10. Penelope's name was printed on her _____.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Stationary vs. Stationery

Stationary and stationery sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Stationary is an adjective meaning standing still or not moving.

Example 1: The plane was so high in the sky that it seemed stationary.

Stationery is a noun meaning writing papers and supplies

Example 1: I wrote the letter on blue stationery.

Stationary
Stationery

Choose stationary or stationery to complete each sentence.

1. The bus stayed stationary while it waited for passengers.
2. The office stationery had a gold seal on it.
3. There are no envelopes in this package of stationery.
4. She gets her exercise on a stationary bicycle.
5. They stood stationary while the snake went by.
6. My aunt bought flowered stationery at the store.
7. The soldiers stayed stationary as the general passed by.
8. He took out a piece of stationery from the desk.
9. The rate of growth remained stationary for three years.
10. Penelope's name was printed on her stationery.