

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Too vs. To vs. Two

There are three words that are among the most commonly confused words in English: too, to, and two.

Too: This is an adverb meaning also or a large amount.

Example 1: She likes purple too.

Example 2: There are too many people in line.

To: This may be a preposition meaning in a specific direction or a part of a relationship. It may also be part of an infinitive verb. This word may also act as an adverb meaning closing or waking.

Example 1: We went to the store.

Example 2: The dog wants to go outside.

Example 3: The doctor brought him to with smelling salts.

Two: This is a noun for the number 2.

Example 1: She ate two cookies.

Choose too, to, or two to complete each sentence.

1. School ended at _____ o'clock yesterday.
2. The teacher gave us _____ much homework
3. On Saturday the family will go _____ the movies.
4. He came _____ when they threw water on his face.
5. I was _____ late to catch the bus.
6. Mrs. Valles has _____ cats.
7. Ellen wants _____ be in the play.
8. The wasp flew _____ its nest.
9. Do you like apples _____?
10. They bought _____ bottles of juice.

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Too vs. To vs. Two

There are three words that are among the most commonly confused words in English: too, to, and two.

Too: This is an adverb meaning also or a large amount.

Example 1: She likes purple too.

Example 2: There are too many people in line.

To: This may be a preposition meaning in a specific direction or a part of a relationship. It may also be part of an infinitive verb. This word may also act as an adverb meaning closing or waking.

Example 1: We went to the store.

Example 2: The dog wants to go outside.

Example 3: The doctor brought him to with smelling salts.

Two: This is a noun for the number 2.

Example 1: She ate two cookies.

Choose too, to, or two to complete each sentence.

1. School ended at _____ two _____ o'clock yesterday.
2. The teacher gave us _____ too _____ much homework
3. On Saturday the family will go _____ to _____ the movies.
4. He came _____ to _____ when they threw water on his face.
5. I was _____ too _____ late to catch the bus.
6. Mrs. Valles has _____ two _____ cats.
7. Ellen wants _____ to _____ be in the play.
8. The wasp flew _____ to _____ its nest.
9. Do you like apples _____ too _____?
10. They bought _____ two _____ bottles of juice.