

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Who's vs. Whose

Who's and whose sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Who's is a contraction for who is or who has.

Example 1: Who's going to help me pull weeds? (Who is going to help me pull weeds?)

Whose is the possessive adjective for who and sometimes which.

Example 1: Do you know whose book this is?

Example 2: The car whose tires were flat bumped along the road.

Choose who's or whose to complete each sentence.

1. _____ Patrick?
2. That is the the boy _____ father is mayor of the town.
3. Are you the one _____ eaten all the cake?
4. Anyone _____ late must go to the office.
5. _____ sweater is this?
6. I don't remember _____ turn it is.
7. Tell me _____ coming to the meeting.
8. Rebecca, _____ science project won the science fair, made an A.
9. The house _____ roof had caved in was dangerous.
10. Lisa, _____ playing in the game tonight, always scores a goal.

Who's vs. Whose

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Who's vs. Whose

Who's and whose sound alike, but their meanings are different.

Who's is a contraction for who is or who has.

Example 1: Who's going to help me pull weeds? (Who is going to help me pull weeds?)

Whose is the possessive adjective for who and sometimes which.

Example 1: Do you know whose book this is?

Example 2: The car whose tires were flat bumped along the road.

Choose who's or whose to complete each sentence.

1. _____ Who's _____ Patrick?
2. That is the the boy _____ whose _____ father is mayor of the town.
3. Are you the one _____ who's _____ eaten all the cake?
4. Anyone _____ who's _____ late must go to the office.
5. _____ Whose _____ sweater is this?
6. I don't remember _____ whose _____ turn it is.
7. Tell me _____ who's _____ coming to the meeting.
8. Rebecca, _____ whose _____ science project won the science fair, made an A.
9. The house _____ whose _____ roof had caved in was dangerous.
10. Lisa, _____ who's _____ playing in the game tonight, always scores a goal.

Who's vs. Whose