

Dictionary Game: Pronunciation

Team rules: Cut out each of the pronunciation word cards and shuffle. Divide students into teams. Optional: Provide a chart of phonetic symbols. Display a pronunciation word card. Each team determines what word the pronunciation word card represents, writes the word on a piece of paper, and holds it up. First team with the correct answer wins a point. First team to win five points wins the game.

Timed game rules (for one or two students): Cut out each of the pronunciation word cards and shuffle. Optional: Provide a chart of phonetic symbols. Display a pronunciation word card. Each student determines what word the pronunciation word card represents, writes the word on a piece of paper, and holds it up. Use a stopwatch to time each student's response. Student with the fastest response time wins, or for a single student, repeat the game at a later date to improve the time.
