

PHRASAL VERBS

Add the Phrasal Verb

A phrasal verb is a two-word phrase made up of a verb and an adverb or a verb and an adverb.

EXAMPLE

Kelly ran out of shampoo.
Ran out is the phrasal verb.

Choose a phrasal verb from the word bank to complete the sentence.

1. Lucy _____ when she got the message.
2. They _____ the form to apply for a library card.
3. Adam _____ the invitation to the concert.
4. We _____ the balloons for the party.
5. The teacher _____ the lesson so the students would understand it.
6. The movie _____ Sam after a bad day.
7. Mother _____ the car into the garage.
8. The team _____ the schedule so they would finish on time.

WORD BANK

blew up
backed up called back cheered up filled out stuck to turned down
went over

PHRASAL VERBS

Add the Phrasal Verb

A phrasal verb is a two-word phrase made up of a verb and an adverb or a verb and an adverb.

EXAMPLE

Kelly ran out of shampoo.
Ran out is the phrasal verb.

Choose a phrasal verb from the word bank to complete the sentence.

1. Lucy called back _____ when she got the message.
2. They filled out _____ the form to apply for a library card.
3. Adam turned down _____ the invitation to the concert.
4. We blew up _____ the balloons for the party.
5. The teacher went over _____ the lesson so the students would understand it.
6. The movie cheered up _____ Sam after a bad day.
7. Mother backed up _____ the car into the garage.
8. The team stuck to _____ the schedule so they would finish on time.

WORD BANK

blew up
backed up
called back cheered up filled out
stuck to turned down
went over