

PHRASAL VERBS

Phrasal Verbs: Add to It!

A phrasal verb is a two-word phrase made up of a verb and an adverb or a verb and an adverb.

EXAMPLE

Kelly ran out of shampoo.
Ran out is the phrasal verb.

Below are sentences with incomplete phrasal verbs. Choose a word from word bank to complete the phrasal verb. You may use one word in the bank more than once.

1. My brother ran _____ my bike in the driveway.
2. Clara tore _____ the newspaper into little strips.
3. Can he log _____ of the computer?
4. The firemen are putting _____ the fire in the house.
5. Don't give _____ until you are finished.
6. You can't run _____ from your problems.
7. She has to pick _____ something to wear to the party.
8. Winston started _____ on his homework.

WORD BANK

away in off on out over to up

PHRASAL VERBS

Phrasal Verbs: Add to It!

A phrasal verb is a two-word phrase made up of a verb and an adverb or a verb and an adverb.

EXAMPLE

Kelly ran out of shampoo.
Ran out is the phrasal verb.

Below are sentences with incomplete phrasal verbs. Choose a word from word bank to complete the phrasal verb. You may use one word in the bank more than once.

1. My brother ran _____ over _____ my bike in the driveway.
2. Clara tore _____ up _____ the newspaper into little strips.
3. Can he log _____ off _____ of the computer?
4. The firemen are putting _____ out _____ the fire in the house.
5. Don't give _____ up/out _____ until you are finished.
6. You can't run _____ away _____ from your problems.
7. She has to pick _____ out/up _____ something to wear to the party.
8. Winston started _____ over _____ on his homework.

WORD BANK

away
in off
on
out
over to up