Find What the Adjective Describes

Adjectives are often used to describe a noun.

Example: The pretty bird sang.   Pretty is an adjective that describes the bird.

In each sentence below an adjective is underlined. Circle the noun that is described by the adjective.

The pretty bird sang.

1. The little mouse was under the bed.

2. I have a blue pencil.

3. The snow was deep.

4. The red truck ran the red light.

5. Juan didn't like the movie, but Louisa thought it was funny.

6. The tree in forest was tall and green.

7. When he saw the girl, he thought she was pretty.

8. My dog is little but has a big head.

Find What the Adjective Describes

Adjectives are often used to describe a noun.

Example: The pretty bird sang.   Pretty is an adjective that describes the bird.

In each sentence below an adjective is underlined. Circle the noun that is described by the adjective.

The pretty bird sang.

1. The little mouse was under the bed.

2. I have a blue pencil.

3. The snow was deep.

4. The red truck ran the red light.

5. Juan didn't like the movie, but Louisa thought it was funny.

6. The tree in forest was tall and green.

7. When he saw the girl, he thought she was pretty.

8. My dog is little but has a big head.