

Prepositional Phrases as Adjectives

Circle the number of the sentences that have a prepositional phrase used as an adjective.

1. We were lucky to find a good place to sit.
2. The girl under the tree is my sister.
3. They built a fence of wood.
4. He laughed loudly when he saw the funny clown.
5. In a minute, I will have to leave.
6. No one saw the man in the blue suit leave the building.
7. The class sang three songs on Monday.
8. It was interesting to hear the stories of the pioneers.
9. She found out her dog won the prize.
10. We ran across the field of flowers.

Prepositional Phrases as Adjectives

Circle the number of the sentences that have a prepositional phrase used as an adjective.

1. We were lucky to find a good place to sit.
2. The girl under the tree is my sister.
3. They built a fence of wood.
4. He laughed loudly when he saw the funny clown.
5. In a minute, I will have to leave.
6. No one saw the man in the blue suit leave the building.
7. The class sang three songs on Monday.
8. It was interesting to hear the stories of the pioneers.
9. She found out her dog won the prize.
10. We ran across the field of flowers.