

Christmas Modifiers: Change the Adjective to an Adverb

Many adjectives can be changed to an adverb. Often this is done by adding the suffix -ly. Below are sentences about Christmas that need an adverb. Each sentence has an adjective underneath it. Change that adjective to an adverb and write it in the blank in the sentence.

Example:

The kitten slept _____ quietly _____ in the basket under the Christmas tree.

quiet

---

1. The lights on the tree sparkled _____.

bright

2. The children ran _____ to their stockings.

quick

3. The Christmas carolers sang the songs _____.

joyful

4. Wesley _____ went to bed early on Christmas Eve.

happy

5. Elizabeth crawled _____ to the living room to see her presents.

silent

6. Mr. Barnes laughed _____ at the funny snowman.

merry

7. Our neighbor _____ brought us some gingerbread cookies.

kind

8. The church bells rang _____ on Christmas morning.

loud

Christmas Modifiers: Change the Adjective to an Adverb

Many adjectives can be changed to an adverb. Often this is done by adding the suffix -ly. Below are sentences about Christmas that need an adverb. Each sentence has an adjective underneath it. Change that adjective to an adverb and write it in the blank in the sentence.

Example:

The kitten slept quietly in the basket under the Christmas tree.
quiet

---

1. The lights on the tree sparkled brightly.
bright

2. The children ran quickly to their stockings.
quick

3. The Christmas carolers sang the songs joyfully.
joyful

4. Wesley happily went to bed early on Christmas Eve.
happy

5. Elizabeth crawled silently to the living room to see her presents.
silent

6. Mr. Barnes laughed merrily at the funny snowman.
merry

7. Our neighbor kindly brought us some gingerbread cookies.
kind

8. The church bells rang loudly on Christmas morning.
loud