

Write a Sentence with a Subject Complement

A subject complement is an adjective that follows a linking verb and modifies the subject of the sentence.

Write a sentence with a subject complement for each of the following guidelines.

1. Use a form of the linking verb to be

2. Use the adjective tired

3. Use the adjective silly

4. Use a form of the linking verb to become

5. Use a form of the linking verb to seem

6. Use the adjective purple

7. Use a form of the linking verb to look; use the adjective charming

8. Use a form of the linking verb to feel; use the adjective foolish

Write a Sentence with a Subject Complement

A subject complement is an adjective that follows a linking verb and modifies the subject of the sentence.

Write a sentence with a subject complement for each of the following guidelines.

1. Use a form of the linking verb to be

Answers: Student's choice.

2. Use the adjective tired

3. Use the adjective silly

4. Use a form of the linking verb to become

5. Use a form of the linking verb to seem

6. Use the adjective purple

7. Use a form of the linking verb to look; use the adjective charming

8. Use a form of the linking verb to feel; use the adjective foolish
