

Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words: Moral vs. Morale

Moral and morale sound a little alike, but their meanings are different.

Moral may be an adjective meaning principles or conduct. It may also be a noun meaning a lesson or personal code

Example 1: He was a fine moral man.

Example 2: The moral of the story was to always do your best.

Morale is a noun meaning confidence or spirits.

Example 1: The morale of the troops was high.

Moral
Morale

Choose moral or morale to complete each sentence.

1. It was a _____ choice to help the injured man.
2. The _____ of the tale was to tell the truth.
3. The lack of leadership lowered the _____ of the team.
4. The rainy weather helped the _____ of the farmers.
5. She had strong, _____ objections to cheating.
6. How is the _____ of the soldiers?
7. The party was good for the worker's _____.
8. He made a _____ judgment to wait.
9. It was a good sign that the patient's _____ was high.
10. What was the _____ of the fable?

Name: _____ Key

Commonly Confused Words: Moral vs. Morale

Moral and morale sound a little alike, but their meanings are different.

Moral may be an adjective meaning principles or conduct. It may also be a noun meaning a lesson or personal code

Example 1: He was a fine moral man.

Example 2: The moral of the story was to always do your best.

Morale is a noun meaning confidence or spirits.

Example 1: The morale of the troops was high.

Moral
Morale

Choose moral or morale to complete each sentence.

1. It was a _____ moral _____ choice to help the injured man.
2. The _____ moral _____ of the tale was to tell the truth.
3. The lack of leadership lowered the _____ morale _____ of the team.
4. The rainy weather helped the _____ morale _____ of the farmers.
5. She had strong, _____ moral _____ objections to cheating.
6. How is the _____ morale _____ of the soldiers?
7. The party was good for the worker's _____ morale _____ .
8. He made a _____ moral _____ judgment to wait.
9. It was a good sign that the patient's _____ morale _____ was high.
10. What was the _____ moral _____ of the fable?