

Spot It! Faulty Coordination

Circle the number of each sentence below that is an example of faulty coordination.

1. Unless you have a better idea, we'll stay with the program as it is.
2. My father works hard, and he likes baseball.
3. She won't be able to come today because she is grounded.
4. Although she walked to school, it was snowing.
5. The door was unlocked, and the windows were open.
6. I completed the test and it is hard.
7. The U.S. Civil War began in 1861 and ended in 1865.
8. Though we went hungry, there was plenty of food in the pantry.
9. President Lincoln died in office and he came from Illinois.
10. Before you leave, I must tell you a story.

Spot It! Faulty Coordination

Circle the number of each sentence below that is an example of faulty coordination.

1. Unless you have a better idea, we'll stay with the program as it is.

2. My father works hard, and he likes baseball.

3. She won't be able to come today because she is grounded.

4. Although she walked to school, it was snowing.

5. The door was unlocked, and the windows were open.

6. I completed the test and it is hard.

7. The U.S. Civil War began in 1861 and ended in 1865.

8. Though we went hungry, there was plenty of food in the pantry.

9. President Lincoln died in office and he came from Illinois.

10. Before you leave, I must tell you a story.