

Name: _____

The Alliteration Game

Draw a letter tile and write the letter in the box. Fill in each blank with a word that starts with that letter.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

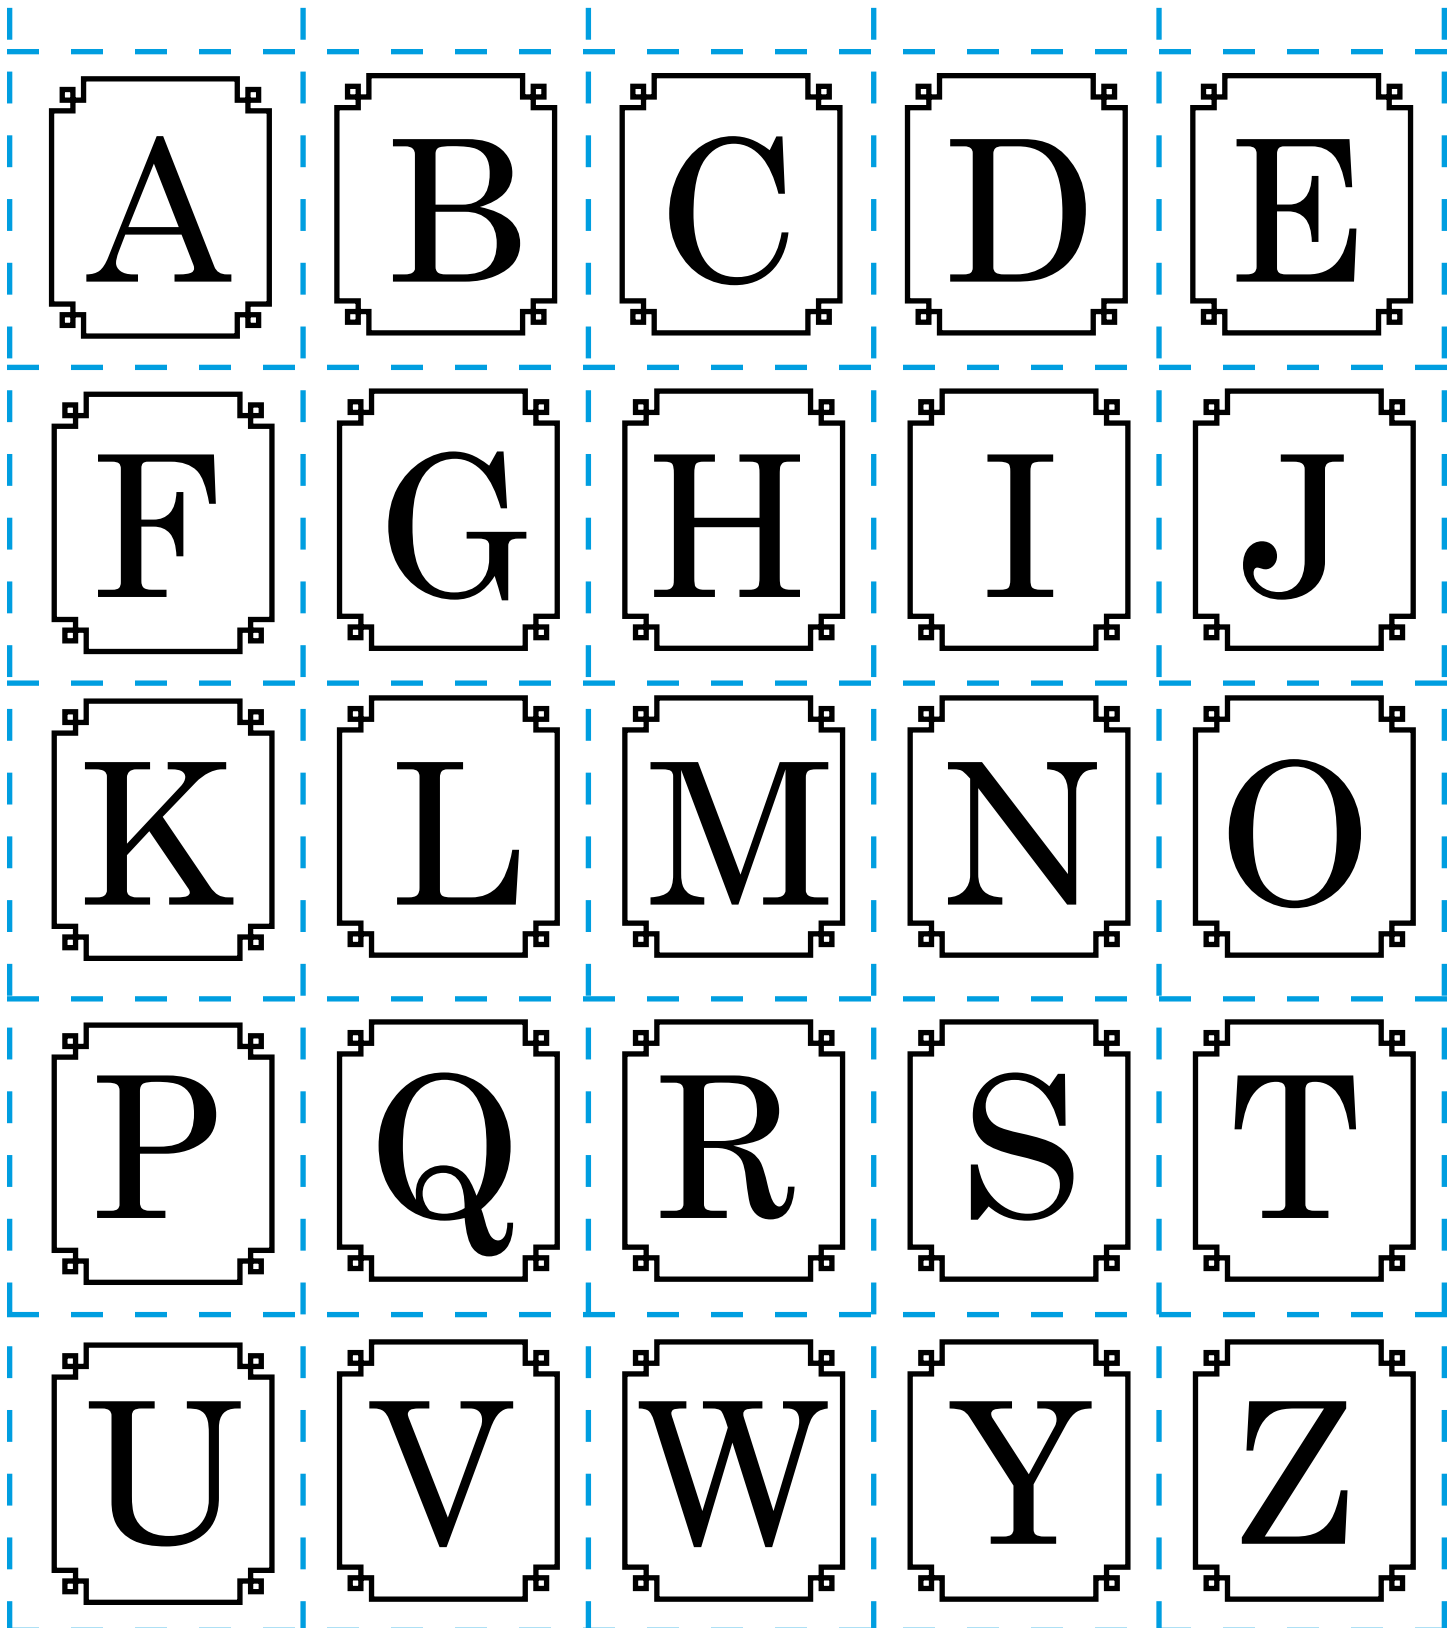

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

Ideas for the game: Students can work individually, as paired competitors or as a team, like a spelling bee. Student draws a letter tile and completes the alliteration sentence.

Example: letter R My name is Robert; my best friend's name is Richard, and we like rabbits.

The exercise may be timed or free-form.

The Alliteration Game

Draw a letter tile and write the letter in the box. Fill in each blank with a word that starts with that letter.

My name is Answers: Student's Choice _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.

My name is _____;
my best friend's name is _____, and
we like _____.