

Name: _____

Replace with Proper Nouns

A proper noun names a specific person, place, or thing. Make the story below more interesting by replacing the common nouns with proper nouns from the word bank that make sense.

WORD BANK:

the Smithsonian Institute    the White House    Washington, D.C.
the Lincoln Memorial    Mrs. Sommerville    Treasures of India
the Washington Memorial    Becky    Papa Joe's Pizza
Thomas Jefferson Elementary    Anthony    Eton Public Library

A Trip to Remember

Steven and his family went on a trip last summer. They went to (a city) _____ _____. They saw (a monument) _____ and (another monument) _____. Then they went to see (an exhibit) _____ at (a museum) _____.
They even saw (a house) _____, where the president lives. They had a wonderful time.

When Steven returned to (a school) _____ in the fall, (a teacher) _____ told him he could get extra credit points by giving an oral presentation about his trip. He had some photographs to use, and he also went to (a library) _____ to write down some information about the places he visited.

Steven's presentation was a success. (A girl) _____ and (a boy) _____ talked to Steven afterwards because they were excited to learn more about the things he had seen. He was happy to tell them more. His parents were happy with his success. They took him out to (a restaurant) _____ that night to celebrate. They all had fun talking about their trip and remembering the fun they had.

Name: _____

Replace with Proper Nouns

A proper noun names a specific person, place, or thing. Make the story below more interesting by replacing the common nouns with proper nouns from the word bank that make sense.

WORD BANK:

the Smithsonian Institute    the White House    Washington, D.C.
the Lincoln Memorial    Mrs. Sommerville    Treasures of India
the Washington Memorial    Becky    Papa Joe's Pizza
Thomas Jefferson Elementary    Anthony    Eton Public Library

A Trip to Remember

Steven and his family went on a trip last summer. They went to (a city) _____ Washington, D.C. They saw (a monument) _____ the Lincoln Memorial and (another monument) _____ the Washington Memorial . Then they went to see (an exhibit) _____ Treasures of India at (a museum) _____ the Smithsonian Institute . They even saw (a house) _____ the White House , where the president lives. They had a wonderful time.

When Steven returned to (a school) _____ Thomas Jefferson Elementary in the fall, (a teacher) _____ Mrs. Sommerville told him he could get extra credit points by giving an oral presentation about his trip. He had some photographs to use, and he also went to (a library) _____ Eton Public Library to write down some information about the places he visited.

Steven's presentation was a success. (A girl) _____ Becky and (a boy) _____ Anthony talked to Steven afterwards because they were excited to learn more about the things he had seen. He was happy to tell them more. His parents were happy with his success. They took him out to (a restaurant) _____ Papa Joe's Pizza that night to celebrate. They all had fun talking about their trip and remembering the fun they had.