

Name: _____

Combining Sentences Using Singular Possessive Nouns

Read each pair of sentences, then combine them to write one sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example: Peter found the notebook. The notebook belonged to Sam.

Peter found Sam's notebook.

1. Nubia returned the keys. The keys belonged to Lucas.

2. The car broke down on the road. Mrs. Peterson is the owner of the car.

3. The police officer checked the bicycle. The bicycle belonged to Joe.

4. Viridiana borrowed a pencil. The pencil was owned by Jonas.

5. The package was delivered on Friday. The package belonged to Sylvia.

6. The inspector checked the house. The house was owned by Dennis.

7. Jessica put on the big boots. The boots belonged to her brother.

8. The babysitter searched for the toy. The toy belonged to Charles.

Combining Sentences Using Singular Possessive Nouns

Read each pair of sentences, then combine them to write one sentence using a singular possessive noun.

Example: Peter found the notebook. The notebook belonged to Sam.
Peter found Sam's notebook.

1. Nubia returned the keys. The keys belonged to Lucas.

Nubia returned Lucas's keys.

2. The car broke down on the road. Mrs. Peterson is the owner of the car.

Mrs. Peterson's car broke down on the road.

3. The police officer checked the bicycle. The bicycle belonged to Joe.

The police officer checked Joe's bicycle.

4. Viridiana borrowed a pencil. The pencil was owned by Jonas.

Viridiana borrowed Jonas's pencil.

5. The package was delivered on Friday. The package belonged to Sylvia.

Sylvia's package was delivered on Friday.

6. The inspector checked the house. The house was owned by Dennis.

The inspector checked Dennis's house.

7. Jessica put on the big boots. The boots belonged to her brother.

Jessica put on her brother's big boots.

8. The babysitter searched for the toy. The toy belonged to Charles.

The babysitter searched for Charles's toy.