

Progressive Story: Adverb Clauses

Below is a story lacking important adverb clauses. Fill in the blank with an adverb clause to complete the sentence.

To the teacher: This story may be completed by one student or passed among a group or an entire class for completion.

Transportation Museum

The class field trip was to the transportation museum since _____

_____. Although _____, Ana looked forward to the trip. The students would ride a bus, since _____.

As _____, the teacher discussed what they would see.

She said that before _____, there were wagons pulled by horses. Where _____, ships and boats carried people. The automobile was invented in the 19th century because _____ _____. The Wright Brothers flew their plane for the first time in North Carolina, after

_____. She learned many things while _____

_____. If _____, she would like to go back to the museum and learn more.

Progressive Story: Adverb Clauses

Below is a story lacking important adverb clauses. Fill in the blank with an adverb clause to complete the sentence.

To the teacher: This story may be completed by one student or passed among a group or an entire class for completion.

Transportation Museum

Answers: Student's choice.
Examples of correct answers:

The class field trip was to the transportation museum since it was near the school

_____. Although she wasn't very interested in transportation, Ana looked forward to the trip. The students would ride a bus, since it was raining that day.

As they walked through the museum, the teacher discussed what they would see.

She said that before the automobile was invented, there were wagons pulled by horses. Where there was water to cross, ships and boats carried people. The automobile was invented in the 19th century because inventors had discovered gas engines. The Wright Brothers flew their plane for the first time in North Carolina, after they had tried many times to fly. She learned many things while she listened to the teacher. If she has time on Saturday, she would like to go back to the museum and learn more.

