

Name: _____

Progressive Story: Relative Clauses

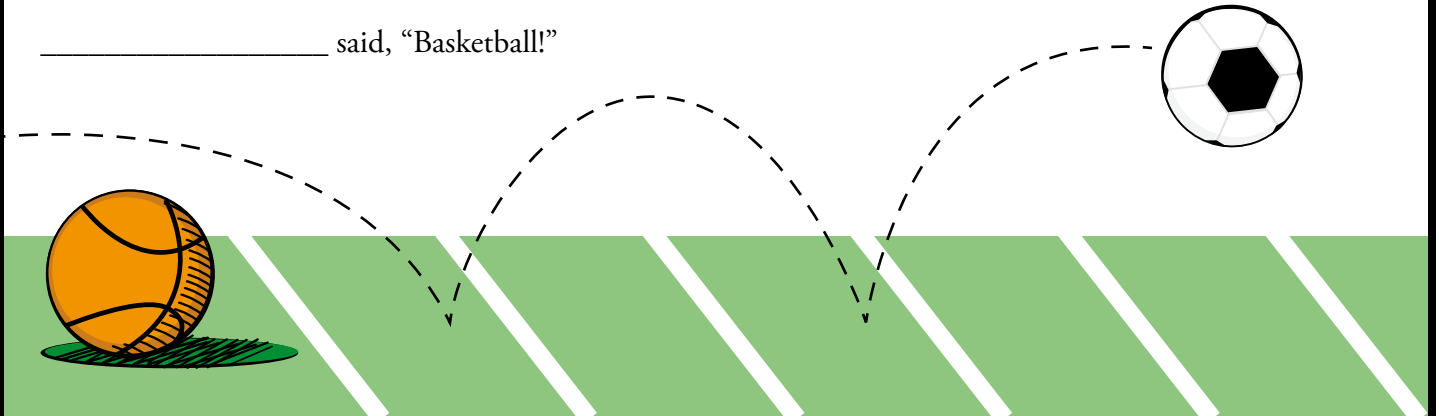

Below is a story lacking important relative clauses. Fill in the blank with relative clauses to complete the sentences.

To the teacher: This story may be completed by one student or passed among a group or an entire class for completion.

Sports Day

Oliver who _____ had been waiting for Sports Day. This day that _____ was a special school day where students could play sports all day long. He wondered what his friends who _____ would play. Oliver knew Felicia who _____ would play soccer. He wasn't sure what Alex who _____ would play. It was pretty certain that Maria would play softball, which _____. Oliver couldn't decide; his decision which _____ kept changing. As he walked to school, he met his teacher, who _____. She asked what sport he, who _____, would play. Finally, Oliver who _____ said, "Basketball!"

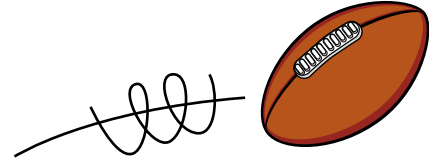

Progressive Story: Relative Clauses

Below is a story lacking important relative clauses. Fill in the blank with relative clauses to complete the sentences.

To the teacher: This story may be completed by one student or passed among a group or an entire class for completion.

Student's choice. Example of correct answers:

Sports Day

Oliver who lived near the school had been waiting for Sports Day. This day that came once a year was a special school day where students could play sports all day long. He wondered what his friends who were in his class would play. Oliver knew Felicia who was a fast runner would play soccer. He wasn't sure what Alex who was his best friend would play. It was pretty certain that Maria would play softball, which was the sport she played best. Oliver couldn't decide; his decision which was so important kept changing. As he walked to school, he met his teacher, who smiled at him. She asked what sport he, who loved all sports, would play. Finally, Oliver who decided suddenly said, "Basketball!"

