

Name: _____

SUBJECT OR PREDICATE: WHAT'S MISSING?

Below are sentence fragments which are missing either a subject or a predicate. Read each sentence and decide what is missing. If the subject is missing, write subject in the blank. If the predicate is missing, write predicate in the blank.

1. The lonesome pine tree.

_____

2. Ann on the rocking chair.

_____

3. Laughing under the bright blue sky which sometimes hurt the eyes.

_____

4. Steve who couldn't remember the answer to the question.

_____

5. The wolf in the darkness as the owl hooted.

_____

6. Danced like a droplet of water in a water fall.

_____

7. On the rooftop walking carefully and slowly.

_____

8. A book with many twists, turns, and surprises.

_____

9. Intending to be like his father.

_____

10. The committee after careful thought and much discussion.

_____

SUBJECT OR PREDICATE: WHAT'S MISSING?

Below are sentence fragments which are missing either a subject or a predicate. Read each sentence and decide what is missing. If the subject is missing, write subject in the blank. If the predicate is missing, write predicate in the blank.

1. The lonesome pine tree.

predicate

2. Ann on the rocking chair.

predicate

3. Laughing under the bright blue sky which sometimes hurt the eyes.

subject

4. Steve who couldn't remember the answer to the question.

predicate

5. The wolf in the darkness as the owl hooted.

predicate

6. Danced like a droplet of water in a water fall.

subject

7. On the rooftop walking carefully and slowly.

subject

8. A book with many twists, turns, and surprises.

predicate

9. Intending to be like his father.

subject

10. The committee after careful thought and much discussion.

predicate

