

Relative Pronouns

Name: _____

A relative pronoun introduces a dependent clause that modifies (gives more information about) a word, phrase, or idea in the independent clause.

- The most common relative pronouns are:
who whom whose that which

Underline the relative clause in each sentence.
Circle the relative pronoun that introduces the clause.

1. The book that I got from the library is due tomorrow.
2. My father, whom I respect, congratulated me on a job well done.
3. I am always frustrated by people who talk while watching a movie.
4. The store no longer sold the computer that I wanted.
5. We walked past the church in which I was baptized.
6. The child to whom you have spoken is my sister.
7. The tallest man who came to the show is my Uncle James.
8. The man whose restaurant burned down was very sad.
9. My first novel, which was published last year, was about my family.
10. The hit song, whose composer won an award, has been playing all day.
11. The building that was scheduled for demolition was knocked down.
12. The young girl who lives next door needs a babysitter.
13. The singer who was very talented won the contest.
14. The reckless driver who ran the red light crashed his car.
15. Clearance sales, which happen rarely, are great ways to save money.
16. Spiders, which build beautiful webs, eat the flies they catch.
17. The bicycle that I ride to school is quite old and needs some repairs.
18. The truck, which was a huge machine, could carry all their belongings.
19. My cousin, whose guitar playing you have heard, wants to be a musician.
20. I have a hard time believing that she really told such a lie.
21. Last summer they traveled to Rome, which is in Italy.
22. What did you buy with the money that you got for your birthday?
23. The delightful little boy, who is wearing a baseball cap, is her son.
24. Mrs. Anderson, whose daughter is also a teacher here, teaches first grade.
25. Your response to my question, which I received today, was appreciated.

Relative Pronouns

Name: _____ Key

A relative pronoun introduces a dependent clause that modifies (gives more information about) a word, phrase, or idea in the independent clause.

- The most common relative pronouns are:
who whom whose that which

Underline the relative clause in each sentence.
Circle the relative pronoun that introduces the clause.

1. The book that I got from the library is due tomorrow.
2. My father, whom I respect, congratulated me on a job well done.
3. I am always frustrated by people who talk while watching a movie.
4. The store no longer sold the computer that I wanted.
5. We walked past the church in which I was baptized.
6. The child to whom you have spoken is my sister.
7. The tallest man who came to the show is my Uncle James.
8. The man whose restaurant burned down was very sad.
9. My first novel, which was published last year, was about my family.
10. The hit song, whose composer won an award, has been playing all day.
11. The building that was scheduled for demolition was knocked down.
12. The young girl who lives next door needs a babysitter.
13. The singer who was very talented won the contest.
14. The reckless driver who ran the red light crashed his car.
15. Clearance sales, which happen rarely, are great ways to save money.
16. Spiders, which build beautiful webs, eat the flies they catch.
17. The bicycle that I ride to school is quite old and needs some repairs.
18. The truck, which was a huge machine, could carry all their belongings.
19. My cousin, whose guitar playing you have heard, wants to be a musician.
20. I have a hard time believing that she really told such a lie.
21. Last summer they traveled to Rome, which is in Italy.
22. What did you buy with the money that you got for your birthday?
23. The delightful little boy, who is wearing a baseball cap, is her son.
24. Mrs. Anderson, whose daughter is also a teacher here, teaches first grade.
25. Your response to my question, which I received today, was appreciated.