

Latin and Greek Prefixes: Arch- and Trans-

Many prefixes we use in English originally come from Greek or Latin words. The prefix arch- is from a Greek word meaning “chief” or “highest.” The prefix trans- is from a Latin word meaning “across,” “change,” or “through.” If you understand what the prefix means, it will help you understand the meaning of the whole word. For example, the root continental means “relating to a continent or large land mass.” Combine trans- with continental, and it becomes the word transcontinental. Based on its original meaning, transcontinental means “across a large land mass” or across a continent.

Use the list in the bank to make five different English words out of arch- and trans-. You may add a suffix or change the spelling a little if needed. Write a sentence for each word you make and circle the word you made with the prefix. Be sure to use words for both arch- and trans-.
