

Correct the Transition Word Mistakes

Transition words are used in a sentence to connect two ideas. They join clauses or sentences together to show a difference or a connection.

Example 1:

We arrived late at the movie; indeed, we missed the first thirty minutes.

Indeed is a transition word. It clarifies how late we arrived at the movie.

Example 2:

We arrived late at the movie; however we missed the first thirty minutes.

However is the transition word in the second example, but doesn't make sense as it is used in the sentence. However is a transition word that shows contrast, yet there is no contrast to be made. Both clauses are about being late to the movie. A better sentence with however would be:

Example 3:

We left early to go to the movie; however, we still missed the first thirty minutes.

In Example 3, however shows the contrast between leaving early and still missing the beginning of the movie.

Below are sentences with misused transition words. Cross out the incorrect transition words and write a better one in the space below the sentence.
