

Commonly Confused Words: What's Correct?

Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

1. The equator is an _____ line around the center of the planet.

imaginary

imaginative

2. The _____ called William to the office.

principal

principle

3. No one is allowed to enter _____ the members of the club.

accept

except

4. The _____ of the story is that truth is better than lies.

moral

morale

5. Gina and her parents want to _____ on the amount of her allowance.

compose

compromise

6. The hotel offers _____ bottled water for guests.

complementary

complimentary

7. The students entered a new _____ of learning when laptops were given to all.

faze

phase

8. Her _____ sense of taste immediately identified the spices in the dish.

discriminatory

discriminating

Commonly Confused Words: What's Correct?

Circle the correct word to complete each sentence.

1. The equator is an imaginary line around the center of the planet.

imaginary

imaginative

2. The principal called William to the office.

principal

principle

3. No one is allowed to enter except the members of the club.

accept

except

4. The moral of the story is that truth is better than lies.

moral

morale

5. Gina and her parents want to compromise on the amount of her allowance.

compose

compromise

6. The hotel offers complementary bottled water for guests.

complementary

complimentary

7. The students entered a new phase of learning when laptops were given to all.

faze

phase

8. Her discriminating sense of taste immediately identified the spices in the dish.

discriminatory

discriminating