

A pun is a joke that uses different possible meanings of a word. For each item, identify the single word that satisfies both the literal and figurative definitions listed below the sentence. The first one is done for you.

1. A ghost's favorite dessert is screams.

(A cold treat / A loud yell of fear)

2. The skeleton couldn't help but be _____.

(Making a sound with bones / Feeling nervous)

3. A stay-at-home mom is a _____.

(A job title / Managing a household)

4. The mushroom was a real _____.

(A person who is funny / A type of mushroom)

5. The tree felt very _____ today.

(To be out in the sun / To be suspicious.)

6. The clock was still hungry, so it went back for _____.

(Units of time / A second helping of food)

7. The electrician found the job _____.

(A literal electrical discharge / Something surprising)

8. The chef was feeling very _____ after the rush.

(To be cooked in hot oil / To be extremely exhausted)

A pun is a joke that uses different possible meanings of a word. For each item, identify the single word that satisfies both the literal and figurative definitions listed below the sentence. The first one is done for you.

1. A ghost's favorite dessert is screams.

(A cold treat / A loud yell of fear)

2. The skeleton couldn't help but be rattled.

(Making a sound with bones / Feeling nervous)

3. A stay-at-home mom is a manager.

(A job title / Managing a household)

4. The mushroom was a real funny.

(A person who is funny / A type of mushroom)

5. The tree felt very shady today.

(To be out in the sun / To be suspicious)

6. The clock was still hungry, so it went back for seconds.

(Units of time / A second helping of food)

7. The electrician found the job shocking.

(A literal electrical discharge / Something surprising)

8. The chef was feeling very fried after the rush.

(To be cooked in hot oil / To be extremely exhausted)